HISTORY OF THE COALITION

- Started as San Juan County Partnership Coalition in 1991
- Merged with Health Council in early 2000s
 - (OSAP only – Mainly Direct Service)
- Separate Coalition for Drug Free Communities grant – Dine Ba Hozho Coalition
- CDWI met in conjunction with LDWI meetings

CURRENT COALITION

- 2019 - Health Council went through Strategic Planning Process & SJCP took on new prevention grants
- Added separate meetings
 - Opioid Overdose Prevention meeting
 - PFS19 Coalition
- 2020 Formed the Community Action Coalition
 - Funded streams: OSAP, CDWI, PFS19, PFS20, DOH Overdose Prevention

COMMUNITY ACTION COALITION

Vision

We are an empowered resilient community advancing prevention goals within San Juan County.

Mission

Moving from talk to action to support wellbeing and reduce substance misuse through collaboration and partnership.

WHY ONE COALITION

- Shorter meetings with workgroups as needed keeps people engaged and committed
- Members have limited time so don't have to choose which meeting to attend
- Can adapt and change as grant priorities change, as data changes
- Cohesive and comprehensive messages
- Reduce duplication
- Community focused
- Long term stability

BALANCING MULTIPLE GRANT PRIORITIES

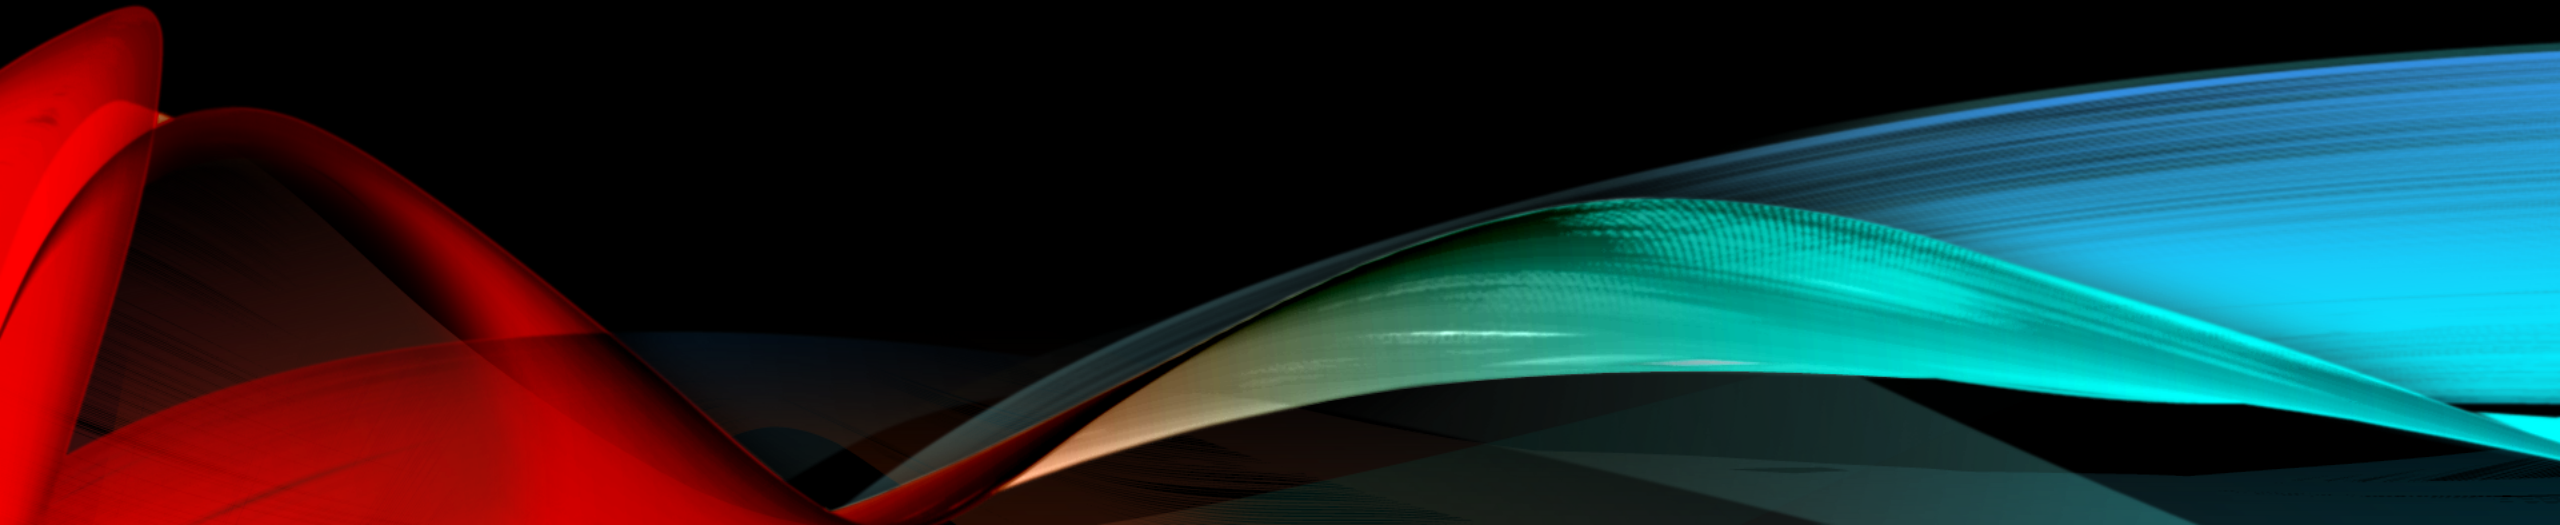

- Core Team
 - Staff from each grant
- Priority Areas for each grant with ability to collaborate on other projects
- Workgroups
 - Media
- Careful reporting and tracking of staff time

MOVING FORWARD

- Community Coalition that is NOT grant focused but priority focused
- Adding community members to Core Team
- Adapt to changing needs and priorities within all of San Juan County
- Able to address larger scale prevention issues
